Do you ever wonder what things will be like for your children or grandchildren? Are you ever fearful your (grand)children will not make it or have a difficult time making it? If you answer no to both of these questions you are lucky. If you answer no to both questions you may not be interested in what I have to say. Maybe you should! If you have any hesitancy in answering either question you will be interested in what I say. My life and my book are about questions - questions not too many people are asking. In the late 1950s and early 1960s banking interests created a monetary system that allowed us and more importantly huge corporations to spend money they did not have and create something out of nothing. For many years I examined the proxy statements of large corporations. I learned some very interesting information from them. I remember reading of a corporation that borrowed a billion dollars. So presumably they are a billion dollars in debt. They took that debt and used it as an asset to borrow another billion. I read that and thought I did not read that correctly. I read it again. Then even a 3rd, 4th and 5th time until I finally said Yes I did read it correctly. I read of Holiday Inn which had to sell out. They borrowed a billion dollars and divided it among their top people and then were forced to sell the corporation to a British group. Again I read that several times thinking I missed something that I did not read it correctly. Again, it was correct. There were certain patterns I learned....
