University Press New England. 1 Cloth(s), 2007. hard. Book Condition: New. Published eight times between 1780 and 1781, La Gazette Fran oise was created to satisfy the curiosity of 6,000 French soldiers stationed in Rhode Island about their American military counterparts. Eugena Poulin and Claire Quintal have translated the texts of the original French newspaper, annotating and comparing them to the American sources upon which they were often based. The articles document a pivotal moment in French and American relations, as well as providing a unique perspective on naval customs of the era, and the political and social ambiance of Newport during the Revolution. 140.
