CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 102 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. This book of Poetry will have a wide appeal to all readers because of content variety and age group relevance. Poems address many subjects and were written as currently as year 2013, while some other poems reach back over the years. One stellar example is the poem titled JFK, The Death of Our President. Written in 1964, just months after the Presidents assassination, the poem captures the essence and emotions of that day with a rhythmic beat that makes you re-live the day, while it remains historically factual in content. There is Christmas, which millions of people celebrate every year. For you, No Room in The Inn will trigger the question how could this really be especially if you link your reading with the poems A Phenomenon Indeed and Now, I See! On the flip side, youll find poems which acknowledge todays environment. For example, A Teenagers Farewell will touch your heart because it deals with the suicide of a lovely teenaged girl. Tears From Our Young Ones challenges all of us adults to become mentors of young people around us, while The Boy, the Teenager, the Man is intended to encourage young people around the world to pursue success, assured their dreams are achievable, with hard work. Ladies and mothers will surely enjoy selections such as Mother, Woman, Friend, A Sisters Plea, An American Act(starring Ms. Oprah Winfrey - unbeknownst to her), and the delightful If I Were a Woman. For the many who may be searching for a meaning to life, knowing fully well that this cannot be all there is, you will find resources to help you along. In doing so, look at history from...
