Chase was elected. On the call of the House, the Rules of order adopted at the previous convention, as the standing rules of the convention, were read. The Bishop's Address. Very Dear Brethren: - My attendance on the General Convention in Philadelphia last year; the great distance in going and coming necessarily requiring so much time; the very early setting in of the rigors of last winter; and the many cares of this spring in sowing and planting the seed necessary for the subsistence of my family, have prevented me from travelling and visiting my diocese as much as I wished. - What I have left undone in one respect, however, I have tried to do in another. My body failing in activity, my mind, I trust has not been idle. My correspondence, having in view the promotion of Religion and Learning in my diocese, has greatly increased. - From this some good has resulted; and, through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, more is expected. immediately after the rising of the Convention at Rushville. I went to Beardstown where I preached and performed divine service in the evening. Next morning I proceeded to Springfield, where I preached and confirmed. The Sunday following I was at Jackson, ville, where I preached and administered the holy communion. Here, also, I expected to ordain, by dispensation, a candidate for holy orders; but something occurring which, in my judgment,...
