By Yvon Dionne

Trafford Publishing, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: French,English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Brief overview: A dramatic story that concerns a surgeon who accidentally acquires a super skill; for that reason, Dr. Stevenson got apart of his hospital teammates with all the dreadful consequences, among them, a fight between him and Ken in the ER and the death of his daughter Elisabeth. Totally ruined, he was granted an aid indescribable in human words. Every chapter is packed action. The Arian thread is continuous from one page to the other one. Nothing is left unexplained; not a sole soppy phrase; the displaying of excruciating pain or orgasm is genuine, raw. In the first chapter, you will discover the pleasant practical meaning of The Song of Songs The 5th one has enough material in itself for producing a movie. A novel as highly structures as Life is. It will definitively mark each of you, one way or the other. French version: Une histoire dramatique concernant un chirurgien qui acquiert accidentellement un superbe don; pour cette raison, Dr Stevenson fut rejete par ses confreres et avec les consequences horribles, dont un combat entre...
