Reviews

This publication will never be effortless to get started on reading through but very entertaining to read through. It normally is not going to expense too much. I discovered this publication from my dad and i encouraged this book to find out.

Sisters Andrea Flynn and Kathleen Williamson are volunteers with the Baxter County Sheriff's Office, and they are determined to solve the murder of Lea Logan, a young waitress at the Martindale Country Club. It appears Lea might've been the mistress of a local big shot, but did that contribute to her death? The murder happened nearly five years earlier, and now the sisters must jog fading memories and scramble for clues in a case gone cold. Soon they discover the long-dead body of a second victim, but complications in the form of password-protected computer files and a bugged office prevent them from identifying the killer. Andrea and Kathleen are persistent—but can they solve the case without putting their own lives in jeopardy?.
