Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 280 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This text has been entitled Nine Different Ways to Praise the Lord because nine different Hebrew words in the Old Testament have been translated as praise in the Scriptures. They are yadah, hilluwl, tehillah, barak, halal, zamar, towdah, shabach, and mahalal. Among those nine, five are verbs and four are nouns. Each of those words will be discussed in this text. In addition, though, because verbs in Hebrew can have different meanings based upon the use of stems, a separate chapter has been devoted to the discussion of Hebrew stem types. Single chapters have also been written to discuss each of the above nine Hebrew words for praise. However, because some of those words are very similar, an attempt has also been made to associate each of those words with their corresponding Greek word for praise that appears in the New Testament. There are seven such words that are translated as praise in the Scriptures. They are ainos, aineo, doxa, epainos, epaineo, humneo, and ainesis. Of them, four are nouns and three are verbs. Another distinction which has been made within this text, however, is that the Septuagint on two occasions had used different Greek words than the seven to replace their corresponding Hebrew words. So in those cases, which had been for eulogetos and psallo, the discussions have included that handling by the Septuagint translators. While this text is not terribly exhaustive, it does involve a lot of discussion about Hebrew and Greek words. The Scriptures provide the bases for praising the Lord, and the Hebrew and Greek praise words provide the methods for praising Him. Therefore, the hope is that everyone reading this book...
