This also brings up the subject of bacteriology as it applies to the home. Considerable attention is given to dietaries. I cannot close this brief outline without saying that both these courses have much to do with the home, its arrangement, proper decoration, care, and furnishings. Commercial and Industrial Education Conducted by the Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago. The Young Men's Christian Association, through its various features, --social, physical, religious, and educational, --serves as a supplement to the home, the church, and the school. It does not attempt or desire to supplant or compete with these fundamental institutions, but rather to supply men and boys with those things which they fail to get elsewhere. The policy of the Association as a supplemental agency is especially emphasized in its educational work. Regular school courses are not followed, but the...
